SCHOOL POR GIRLS, RENO.

This School has been in successful operation for three y-ars and a half and has become well known through mit re State. From the time it was first opened until now no pains have been appried on the part of those who have it in charge

FIRST-CLASS SCHOOL.

Fully worthy the confidence of those who have stungstors to be educated. And these efforts have been successful. It gives us pleasure to may that although the number of scholars has at some time been larger than during the last term, the whool is now in better condition than it has ever before been and it is now more than ever before, worthy of patrolage and support.

TEACHERS:

Miss Eate A. Sill the first Principal, returned and resumed her position at the beginning of the last term, to the areat satisfaction of av ry scholar, and friend of the S. kool. Mrs. L. B. Graham has also returned, and with Miss edit with he resire be identified with the school. Miss Eva Quasfie, to escaber of music, is too well and favorably known to need any commendation from us. In addition to these the R v '. it leavey Miss Julia woodruff, and Miss fame. Briscoe, three horoughly competent reachers have been employed during the past term. Addition to the staff of teachers will be made whenever the wants of the School may require it; but with thirty-five scholars, the vamber in attendance during the last term, as teachers are amply sufficient to do full justice to every scholar while especial attention is given to the

The habeas corpus case of Tiburcio Parrott involving the constitutionality of the Act forbidding corporations to employ Chinamen, came up in the Circuit Court in San Francisco yesterday. A great crowd of Workingmen and lawyers were in attendance. Attorney General Hart not having had sufficient time to prepare himself the case was laid over for one week.

The San Francisco Park Commissioners have authorized David Bush to put as many men at work on the Park as he can find means to pay for their labor. Bush is making a canvass for subscriptions with decided success, having raised 500 yesterday morning. Each subscriber has the privilege of naming some needy man who has to be given employment. The preference is given to men having families to support.

A bili has passed the Sonate providing for the publication of a complete official history of the navy. This is to be a work similar to the one that has been in progress for several years in connection with the records of the army. It will include all orders, reports of movements and battles and all the private official correspondence of the various naval operations during the late war.

A DIVISION.

It turns out that the Pennsylvania delegation to Chicago is not unanimous as was reported. It is known that at least seven of the delegates will vote against the third term, first, last and all the time. They are Blaine men, they do not hold themseives bound by a unit rule, and prefer to obey the will of their local constituents. The Cinconsti Convention decided that delegates were not bound to vote contrary to their convictions or the will of their local constituency, and the point was raised, at will to remembered, on the motion of a member of the Pennsylvania delegation. The unit rule seems likely to give trouble to managers at Chicago.

Among certain European critics the idea seems to be that if a beau wishes to win the affections of an American girl he has only to go up to her and ask her to go off on a matrimonial lark. while, if he would worshipfully marry a French or an English girl he must go through thirty degrees of social Masonry, take accurse in un academy of social mathematics, nor see a photograph of the object of his affection or put her favorite dog on the head; but every spring, for a number of prescribed years, present violets to the aunt of the rector of the parish in which a relative of the second consin of the unseen darling one lives. more than an inch or so taller than American girls, after all.

THE STRICKEN LAND.

The latest news from Dublin, as reported by a Harald correspondent is to the effect that the distress in Ireland grows more widespread every day. It is only through the admirable machinery of distribution, organized by the Mansion House and Marlborough committees, that actual starvation is checked. The famine will probably intensify during the coming fortnight, after which for a short period _it will be probably less severe in consequence of the employment of labor in the sowing of crops. This done, the worst crisis will follow. Jonathan Pim, who is famous for his labors in 1847, told the correspondent of the Herald that the worst time would be the last fortnight in May, all through June and the first fortnight in July. This is confirmed by experience. It is also the opinion of every authority on the subject. Mr. Charles Kennedy, an active member of the Mansion House Committee, believes the present committee could manage the distress for a considerable time, but their funds would be nearly, if not quite, exhausted when the most crushing crisis arrived. He would advise the Herald to make the American fund as large as it could, and then to husband it then be the actual saviour and mainstay of the people. The Journal renews its found at this point.

At the Alt, and Benton they now At the Alt, and Benton they now of a San Francisco committee, collected Reno fire, be turned over to the Herald fund without further delay.

But if it be gennine why should the Massachusetts legislators single out the medical quacks for special punishment? Why not include the quacks in all the o her walks of life-the quacks in the Church for instance, who are every once and awhile getting up patent nostrums to secure eternal salvátion? Then there are legal quacks, more numerous perhaps than all other classes of quacks put together-why not begin their extermination? The quack above all others, however, we should like to see killed off is the political quack, and it is not too much to say that Massachusetts enjoys a monopoly of that special article. It is to be hoped the bill will tribe of quackdom.

(Enterprise, 28.)

During the past two days the stock market has shown some signs of life. At any other time we would look for a very lively market. The situation in the leading mines, from end to end of the lode, would justify it, but in the present demoralized condition of ress and affairs of almost every kind in California, no one here appears to know what to do. About next Wednesday or Thursday the air compressor at the Sierra Nevada will again be running, when all work will be resumed as usual. The Earl of Grosvenor and then resided, would be much more than father-in-law, General Sherman, took pity on the boy, and returned the necklace, with thunks, to the donor in Egypt. Upon receiving them, the Khedive wrote to the General, saying that it was not his desire that the diamonds should be given to any one member of his family, and, having learned that he had four daughters, it was his wish then that the diamonds should be mounted in sets, and divided equally between them. These daughters are Mrs. Fitch, nee Minnie Sherman, Ella Sherman, Lizzia Sherman, and Rachael Sherman The necklace was then returned to the Sherman family and mounted in four magnificent pendants, four pairs of splendid solitaire earrings and eigh rings. FOR AND AGAINST THE THIRD TERMSE.

(Concerd (N. H.) Monitor (Rop) Feb. 3.] It may be necessary yet to nominate the ex-President for a third term as being the safest and therefore the wises for a good government to be done meantime, however it is well to consider some of the difficulties in the way, before making an irrevocable choice. NOT CONVINCED.

The Exeter News Letter continues to advocate the romination of the ex-President for a third term with earnestness and persistence. It believes him to be the strongest candidate possible, and states the grounds of its belief with fairness and caudor. . We are not convinced by its arguments that the ex-President is the strongest candidate or the most fitting, or that he is indeed a stalwart Republican.

A NEW CRISIS.

[Boston Traveller (hep) Feb. 3.] The ex-President is not regarded now as he was in 1875.. A new crisis confronts us, more perilous than any since 1860. The Republican masses know and feel this, and they are not half as much impressed with fine-drawn theories about "the wise and unbroken usage of the Republic" as they are with the remembrances that but for President there would be no Republic at all to-day, and the conviction that, in this new emergency, he is the most available leader under whose banner to make sure that what he saved by the sword shall not be sacrificed to the subtler treason of desperate and revolutionary politics.

THE DEMAND NOT CLEAR.

From the Philadelphia ullutin (Rep.) Feb. 2-) The foolish bubble of the third term ery, pricked and dissipated as it was four years ago by his quiet and willing retirement from office and by the constitutional succession of Mr. Haves to the office, still puzzles and deludes many vivid iumginations, and can, at all times be conjured up to frighten the creduious and timed, by any skilful talker or writer, precisely as if the evil had a rem possible existence. This paper has no candidate for the Presidency. This paper and has had none. In view of Mr. Shook's prescience on that occasion his opinion was sought yesterday on a similar point, and when asked who would probably win in the coming Convention, he replied unhesitatingly, "Mr. Blaine." Mr. Snook then at some length discussed the per-sonal and professional popularity of Mr. Blaine, puph-pooled the "Cameron victory" in Pennsylvania and predicted that Blaine will be the nominee in all probability, and certainly, if the people are consulted and permutted to have anything to say about it.

This opinion gains ground daily, the detailed reports of correspondents in the pivotal States showing beyond question that, so far as the people are con cerned, nothing is more distasteful than the idea of a third term, while the Blaine fever is burning fiercer than at any other time.- New York Herald.

He forbore to clear it off for the regulation ranching purposes, and whatever work has been done was aimed to increase the natural beauty and advantages. A good road, branching to the left of the main thoroughfare, winds along by the river's edge, and step by step we are introduced to the complete loveliness of the wildwood. The river, which floats placedly in in one place, dashes with unrestrained fury in another, here bubbles and sparkles with j y, and while covering with white-caps the rocks that bar its way, gurgles its glee to the

The steamship Erin, which has just arrived, brought with her a number of road locomotives and trains of wagons, destined for the West, where they will be employed in the transportation of minerals and general merchandise. They are intended to, as far as possible, replace mule power, the slow and expensive tractile force at present in use, and will form a connecting lank with the railroads now completed and with others which are being constructed. The whiches, which were built in England, will be shipped by a representative of the manufacturers in this city, to whom they were consigned, by rail to Wads-worth, Nevada. On their arrival there they will at once be put to work on certain central routes in that State.

The Reform Club Meeting Last Night.

The attractive programme presented fills the Nevada Theatre last evening. The entertainment opened with a full chorus in the familiar tune of "Home, Sweet Home." . Julia Wintermantel sang a pathetic little ballad representing a child of poverty, homeless and norrowful; accompaniment by her sister, Miss Mary Wintermantel, the wellknown pianist. Mr. Laycock recited an Irish poem with brogue and actions to the life. Miss Hattie Lewis read "The Witch's Daughter," by Whittier. Her voice and style of reading is exceedingly pleasant. The duett of Muss Raynous and Dickey Jose was liked immensely. It was a dialogue between two Irish lovers, Maggie and Barney, ending with a decision to take the 'ould folks" and emigrate to Freedom's land. Miss Ada Tilton recited, in her inimitable manner, a beautiful home sketch. Twas the old story of the farmer and his wife bereft of their children, spendtug their Christmas Eve in dreams of the past. The Misses Finlayson sang the duett "1 Can Not Sing that Song To-Night." The music is very sweet and sad. Benny Barnett's execution in his instrumental selection was even better than usual, and that is saying much. The lecturer of the evening was Roger Johnson. Choosing a his subject the times of Elizabeth, he noticed the most interesting portions of her reign, making many happy hits "on the side." With a dash of Russia and the positical aspect of our own blest land, the address closed with a lawyer's inevitable burst of eloquence. A telegram was received from Dr. Banks Mc-Kenzie, and the committee appointed to meet him returned from the train in triumphant possession of the hero. Being introduced by President Cossitt, the Doctor made a few remarks, and pleading fatigue, retired with the promise to speak at the Reform Club Hall tonight. What may we reasonably infer from the suc cess of a medicine which is for and wide, no only in the hand of its discovery, but in foreign countries which nos met with the indorsemen of medi insl men, the annual preparation and shi, ment of which employs a small same of em playes, and the outlay upon which, in various ways is simply enormous. We must, if candid award to such a remedy, the meed of well deserved an cess. Such a medicine as Hostetteer's Stampol Bisters, the leading American remedy for fever and ague, liver complaint, dyspepsia, debitity, nervousness, rheumstism, and variou ather physical troubles. It early took praced ente among tonics and alteratives, and ha stradily maintained it. Persons of a weakly physique state its recuperative properties to be remarkable, both in degree and the matter of promptitude, and the billious give a particularly good account of its effects.
